ABOUT THIS COURSE

This unit involves the skills and knowledge required to identify, apply and follow chain of responsibility legislation, regulations and workplace procedures in relation to heavy vehicles as they apply to an individual's own job role.

It includes explaining the chain of responsibility features, applying the requirements, and identifying and reporting breaches in the Heavy Vehicle National Law (HVNL) and regulations or applicable state/territory law and regulations.

Work is performed under some supervision, generally within a team environment.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.

COURSE STRUCTURE

To be awarded this unit of competency, students will need to complete the course work as it applies to workers who are in the chain of responsibility.

Elements of the Unit of Competency

- Explain the chain of responsibility features in the Heavy Vehicle National Law and regulations or applicable state/territory law and regulations
- Apply chain of responsibility requirements in the Heavy Vehicle National Law and regulations or applicable state/territory law and regulations
- Identify and report chain of responsibility breaches

Required Skills and Knowledge

The required skills and knowledge of this unit focuses on skills that include:

- Actions required when possible breaches are identified
- Consequences of non-compliance
- Methods and requirements to ensure management of fatigue, speed, load restraint, mass and dimension
- Parties in the chain of responsibility
- Principal obligations

- What constitutes a duty, reasonable step, breach and a penalty
- Where to locate information
- Workplace policies and procedures in relation to own job role

ASSESSMENT

Students will be assessed to confirm competence using a combination of knowledge based assessment, practical activities and assessments.

WHAT MATERIALS/EQUIPMENT DO I REQUIRE?

Students will be provided with access to all learning resources. Suitable workplace assessment environments are to be provided by the student's employer.

COURSE OUTCOME

On successful completion of the assessments, a nationally recognised Statement of Results will also be issued by Broadspectrum Training Services outlining the specific unit of competency completed.

DURATION, DELIVERY METHOD, PARTICIPANTS AND PRICE

Students have a period of 6 weeks from the date of enrolment to complete the requirements of the unit of competency. Where students have not successfully completed all of the requirements for the unit, no Statement of Results will be provided.

Delivery of this unit of competency combines face to face delivery, workplace delivery and assessment.

Quotation provided upon request.

COURSE VENUE

Broadspectrum Training delivers this unit of competency using a combination of in house face-face training and workplace based delivery.
