1.11 You may provide details of other formal policies or formal strategies that specifically support gender equality that may be in place:

Transfield Services continues to encourage employees to adhere to the standards of behaviour as set in our Code of Business Conduct which acts as a guide to ethical and responsible behaviour.

Supporting the Code of Business Conduct is the Board endorsed Equality and Diversity in the Workplace Policy. This policy aims to promote a fair and inclusive workplace culture, set out objectives relating to diversity and its associated benefits and to also provide a standard and guide for the continued development of local policies and procedures.

The Board has set initial measurable objectives in relation to gender diversity, aiming to increase the level of participation of women throughout the organisation, with particular regard to professional roles in the three layers of the Company below the role of the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer.

The objectives and progress against them are to be disclosed and assessed yearly in the Annual Report. The Annual Report also includes information on the proportion of female employees in the whole organisation, women in senior executive positions (that is, direct reports to the Managing Director/Chief Executive Officer) and women on the Board.

Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

2 Does your organisation, or any organisation you are reporting on, have a governing body/board? (If you answered no, you will only be required to answer question 2.4, if applicable)

Over the 2013-2014 period, there were two significant appointments to Transfield Services Board of Directors. Diane Smith-Gander was appointed as Chairperson of the Board on 25th October 2013, and Kathy Hirschfeld appointed as a non-executive director of the Board on 28th October 2013. Diane and Kathy have identified the need to ensure Transfield Services continues to build a diverse workforce in order to remain competitive and establish an organisational climate that encourages innovation. Subsequently the 'Chairman's Circle' has been created, comprising of key females leaders across the Company. The Chairman's Circle will meet for the first time on the 29th May 2014, where actions and objectives will be set with regards to improving workplace diversity. The impact of the Chairman's Circle on gender equality within the workplace will be assessed over the 2014-2015 period.
